Dare

Where the wind blows over the mountains
And the water runs clear
And I hear the sound of thunder
As the storm draws near

Like the stars that shine high above me
Oh, the beauty we've found
And this restless heart will wander
'Till I'm home sacred ground

And I could see the fire in the sky
I'm standing in the sun
A thousand angels bring me light
And I'm home, yeah, I'm home again

Home, take me home
To the place I belong
Home, take me home
To the place I'll be strong

Over land and sea I have travelled
'Neath the heavens we're bound
And I'll rise again from the wasteland
'Till I'm home sacred ground

And I could see the fire in the sky
Blinded by the light
A thousand angels bring me light
And I'm home, yeah, I'm home again

Home, take me home
To the place I belong
Home, take me home
To the place I'll be strong

Home, take me home
To the place I belong
Home, take me home
To the place I'll be strong
