

I'll Be the Wind

Dare

He's got the world
Upon his shoulders
Running faster the harder it falls

No one had gone
And he ran his letter till the dawn
Though the pages were torn

I'll be the wind in the trees my son
I'll be the road that you walk upon
(I will be with you)
I will be with you when I'm gone
And you carry on, and you carry on

So many words
We left unspoken
Let the road take you where you will go
And some day you will know
The path that burns so brightly it never dies
And I'm always by your side

I'll be the wind in the trees my son
I'll be the road that you walk upon
(I will be with you)
I will be with you when I'm gone
And he carries on, and he carries on

I will be there for you
I'll be the shelter from the rain for you
And you always know

I will be with you when I'm gone
And he carries on, and he carries on

I'll be the wind in the trees my son
I'll be the road that you walk upon
Even the letter inside the something
And he carries on, and he carries on

I'll be the wind...
