

Phoenix

Dare

Tell me why the seasons change
And why there's falling rain above my head
Tell me why my love remains
And promises you made for me were broken

Like a Phoenix from the flames
I'll be moving on again
And I'll say goodbye to summer
And I'll say goodbye to you
And I'll say hello to winter
That's all that I can do

Now, hell has no fury like a woman scorned
Crashing like a wave above the rocks
The fame and glory was a different song
Rising with the smoke from the fire

Like a Phoenix from the flames
I'll be moving on again
And I'll say goodbye to summer
And I'll say goodbye to you, my love
And I'll say hello to winter
That's all that I can do
It's all that I can do

And I'll say hello to winter
A Phoenix from the flames
Is all that now remains

Like a Phoenix from the flames
Like a Phoenix from the flames
Like a Phoenix from the flames
The flames
