

Some Day

Dare

Father what have you done
They've taken the heart of your son
It's a long road that leads to my soul
But I still here the words that you said

There's a cold wind blowin' outside
Tell me how long, how long can we try
Yes one day the saviour will come
And we'll hold on 'till then

And then someday
There'll be more than this
And I'll meet you there
In a land somewhere... waiting
I'm waiting

We're alone as the darkness turns
Killing time as the cradle burns
God I know my time will come
'Cause I know what its like to be lost

Maybe one day I know our time will come
And I'll meet you there
In a land somewhere
Someday... I'm waiting...

There's a flame that burns in the sky
There's a road we'll run 'till we die
Father what have they done
They've taken the heart of your son
There's a cold wind that crosses my soul
But we'll hold on 'till then
