

Still Waiting

Dare

I'm still waiting

The winter came
And took your heart from me
This wind is blowing now
I still can't set you free
When we were young
And we were strong
And I swore I'd wait for you
It's where I belong

And I'm still waiting
When you coming home
And I'll be waiting
Till you coming home again

She came to me
Tears rolling down her face
Said she was leaving now
Gonna climb out of this place
Those years we had
And the dreams that we made
And I'd turn the hands of time
To bring them back again

And I'm still waiting
When you coming home
And I'll be waiting
Till you coming home
No matter what they say or do
I will always be waiting for you

The summer's gone
And I can't find my way to you
With every breath I take
I still think of you

I'll be waiting

No matter what they say or do
I'll always be waiting for you, for you

The winter came
And took her heart away
And now that she has gone
I'll wait another day

And I'm still waiting
When you coming home
And I'll be waiting
When you coming home
No matter what they say or do
I'll always be waiting for you
And I'll be waiting

I'll be waiting

No matter what they say or do
I'll be waiting
