

Strength

Dare

You gave me hope
When all was lost
You gave me faith
Without the cross
You gave me strength
To carry on
And through the storm
You sheltered me
You held the wind
And set me free
The sunrise on me
So I could see

You were the air I breath and oh
You were the one
You gave me strength to carry on
When I was lost and forsaken
You held me then
You gave me strength

And when I fall
You held me high
You healed my wings
So I could fly
When thunder strikes
The darkest dawn

You were the lighting
Through the storm
You were the one
You gave me strength to carry on
When I was lost and forsaken
You held me then
You gave me strength
