

The Devil Rides Tonight

Dare

She could hear the rain fall from heaven
She closed the door and stepped into the night
The letter on her pillow said she's leavin'
She drove to the morning light

She was free like the wind
While the devil sleeps tonight
And she'll drive like the wind
Drive like the wind
While the devil sleeps tonight
Whoa
Whoa

He could see the sun rising in the sky
Burning on his skin. He drives alone
You could see the devil burning in his eyes
And he knows she's never coming home

And he's driving with the wind again
Where the devil rides tonight
And he'll drive like the wind
Drive like the wind
Where the devil rides tonight
Whoa tonight

And he's driving with the wind again
Where the devil rides tonight
And he'll drive like the wind
Drive like the wind
Where the devil rides tonight
Whoa

Tonight
Where the devil will ride tonight
Whoa
Where the devil rides tonight
Tonight
