

Until

Dare

There will be no more sorrow
When the sun fall across the sky
I will hold you, my darling
Until the clouds pass us by

I will hold you my love
As long as I breath
'Till the mountains so high
Fall to the sea
No matter how far
Together we'll be you and me
You and me

If there was no tomorrow
For this day I would make you mine
And I'll hold you, my darling
Until we reach the end of time

I will hold you my love
As long as I breath
'Till the mountains so high
Fall to the sea
No matter how far
Together we'll be you and me
You and me
