

Demon Eyes

Dargaard

I am one you called -
Deep in the night you lost your soul.

Through demon eyes you saw
What lies behind the mask of life.

To ride with me - to cross the firesea...
Were these your greatest dreams?

Eternal wisdom you will earn -
Far away from present days.

Through demon eyes you saw
The spheres I left for centuries.

Shadows of the worlds beyond -
They touch you like a burning wind.

A circlegate of neverending journeys
In close to the eyes
You now call your own.

Walk the path of spirit
Into dimensions unknown.

Through demon eyes you died.
