

Hollow

Daria Zawiałow

You got it, you got it
You got it all stranger
You've got the look
You've got the flame
The world is yours

You took it, you took it
You stole it from angels
And now your head is just a game
With stolen gods

The stars and all the moons
Will catch you if they choose it
Life can be a little bitch and so are you

I wanna dance with the shadow
Let it dance with my eyes
I wanna laugh at the sorrow
Disappears in the night

You like it, you like it
You like yourself stranger
The golden boy to destroy
It's just a ploy

You made it, you made it
But you are not dreamer
You have to live with yourself
With stolen souls

The stars and all the moons
Will catch you if they choose it
I can be a little bitch and so are you

I wanna dance with the shadow
Let it dance with my eyes
I wanna laugh at the sorrow
Disappears in the night

Since yesterday
I don't want to stay
I give it up i give it up
I give it up again

I saw your grave
In the bottom of my head
It's in my heart it's in my heart
It's in my heart today

Since yesterday
I don't want your face
I give it up i give it up
I give it up again

It's fucking shame
You're the traitor that i made
You're falling down

You're falling down
You're falling down again

I wanna dance with the shadow
I wanna dance with the hollow
