

I'll Be Alright

Darin

I really love ya
Oh you know that I do
I Love you
That's how you feel
And I can't do nothing at all won't stop you

You have to know that
I'll be your right
Whether you love me you're not
I'll be alright

A thousand knives
Oh they cut my heart, my heart
But I won't never show you the scar you give me
Deep down I want you to stay
I guess I have to let go
And say

You have to know that
I'll be your right
Whether you love me you're not
I'll be alright

Fall turn this brave
I spread my wings and be alright
Is that where we stand
Lovers to friends
I'll be alright

You have to know that
I'll be your right
Whether you love me you're not
I'll be alright
