

Moonlight

Darin

Can see it in my eyes
All of the pain that I hide inside
'Cause here in this city I'll never cry
I'll dance the night away

Ooh
Living life like I've got nothing to lose
Using things I swore I'd never use
Those white lies ain't telling the truth

But when I see the moonlight
I can't help but fall into the white light
Chasing every high until they all come down
And I swear I'll doubt
I'll do it again
Said I'll do it again

I love the wicked games
Comfort in strangers who laid no blame
Angels and demons, they're all the same
When darkness takes the day
I can't break away

Ooh
Living life like I've got nothing to lose
Using things I swore I'd never use
Those white lies ain't telling the truth

But when I see the moonlight
I can't help but fall into the white light
Chasing every high until they all come down
And I swear I'll doubt
I'll do it again

But when I see the moonlight
I can't help but fall into the white light
Chasing every high until they all come down
And I swear I'll doubt
I'll do it again
Said I'll do it again

I swear, I won't
But every night I'm losing all my
Self control
No I don't wanna do it but it's
All I know
Impossible to change

But when I see the moonlight
I can't help but fall into the white light
Chasing every high until they all come down
And I swear I'll doubt
I'll do it again
Said I'll do it again
