

One True Flame

Darin

For the longest time
It's been on my mind
Was trying to understand
I've been looking for
That part of me
Out of touch and out of hand
Everything I thought I knew
Love proved me wrong
For all the times that I held on
I shouldn've let go

Cause when you find the one you'll know
She's the heart inside your soul
She's the one that looks at you and gives
The feeling you've come home
There's a place it all begins
Where together never ends
And the more we are the more we
Feel the same
One true flame

All the foolish games
That we have to play
To learn from our mistakes
We go on n'on
We convince ourselves
That this is what it takes
But nothing's really what it seems
And no one really knows
It's only now that I can see
And realize

Oh you're everything, that I ever dreamed
But never had 'til now
Looking back I see It was ment to be
It was you that showed me how
Thought I've been loved before
But I wasn't even close
