

Rushes

Darius

She's got a blind smile and a soft touch
A cute little dimple when she laughs too much
They say you fall hard when you meet her
Such is her allure
She's got a quick wit and a fast tongue
But she doesn't seem to know that she's the one
They say she cheats charm when she whispers
She's devilishly pure

You'd see if you knew her
She doesn't know
But its time I told her so

When I see your blushes
From a compliment of mine it touches
Something inside I'm getting rushes
The adrenaline rushes
And I'm fascinated
That you really don't know how to take it
When I look at you that way you feel naked
And I'm so into you
I'm getting rushes

She's about five nine
Got a sexy stride
With long tanned legs that she shouldn't hide
With a fine air of innocence
Nonchalance in every move
She's a sweet sensation tease temptation

She looks good enough to eat

She's a fallen angel with a devilish streak

And so they say

Like with like will finally meet

You'd see if you knew her

She doesn't know

But its time I told her so

When I see your blushes

From a compliment of mine it touches

Something inside I'm getting rushes

The adrenaline rushes

And I'm fascinated

That you really don't know how to take it

When I look at you that way you feel naked

And I'm so into you

I'm getting rushes

When I like it I want more

And I like it and I want more

And I like it and I want more

Never felt it like this before

It's more than adrenaline rushes

It's the touch and the smell of skin rushes

Some call it love at first sight

I call it butterflies

When I see your blushes

From a compliment of mine it touches

Something inside I'm getting rushes

The adrenaline rushes

And I'm fascinated

That you really don't know how to take it

When I look at you that way you feel naked

And I'm so into you

I'm getting rushes
