

Dead

Dark Divine

I just feel dead
Buried inside my head
With nothing left

We're trapped by the one's we trusted
Held down by their control
Choked out by the ones we wanted
Life has never felt so cold
Forsaken melody
It's always telling me
That I'm alone
You don't have to lie to me
I am the enemy
It's all that I've ever known!

Inhuman reflections
Taking over every thought in mind
The deeper we dig and the more that we think
The further we stray from the truth inside!

I'm sick and broken I am nothing but a shadow
Perspective is a weapon to fight my inner battles
I'll show how deep the rabbit hole can go
But just so you know

This life is getting chaotic
Thoughts only gets more psychotic
When I just can't help but listen
Oh God...
There is a voice
Telling me that I have no choice
Take me away, insanity
Is not a game that you wanna play
Bend until I fucking break!

Just leave with dignity!
You'll never know the pain that you're causing me!

I'm sick and broken I am nothing but a shadow
Perspective is a weapon to fight my inner battles
I'll show how deep the rabbit hole can go
But just so you know

I just feel dead
Buried inside my head
With nothing left except
What remains of my innocence!
But am I truly innocent!?
All I see is fucking red!

I'm sick and broken I am nothing but a shadow
Perspective is a weapon to fight my inner battles
I'll show how deep the rabbit hole can go
But just so you know

I just feel dead!

Buried inside my head!

All I see is fucking red!

Am I truly innocent!?
