

Back from Hell

Dark Fortress

No more you see me cryin', never I will crawl
I wouldn't beg forgiveness, 'cause I am sick of it all

I feel like I'm back from hell
And devils claws are not strong enough for me
I feel like I'm back from hell
There's an eagle high in the sky, that I see

Each day I gave myself, I stand by your side
Now you took off your mask and I see a devil behind

I feel like I'm back from hell
And devils claws are not strong enough for me
I feel like I'm back from hell
I spread my wings and fly away

Too long I said no word but
Now it's time to scream loud
And with this song I try
To crack my chains and break out

Back from hell
No I won't turn my head
Back from hell
And I wouldn't look back
Back from hell
Now you mean nothing to me
Back from hell
The eagle is all that I see
Back, back, back from hell
