

Lay Down in Hell

Dark Fortress

In your nightmares
Rivers of blood
Seas of pain
Mixed fears that are coming again

They're talking to you
Hundreds of voices
They've got no faces
'Cause they're in your head
Creeping and crawling
Towards your grave
Sleeping in an alley
Of nightmares and fears

They're watching you
So many eyes
They're staring at you
Out of the darkness
Everywhere
Creating and living
In your own world
Walking right into noman's land

Your sun is dark
Your heaven is cloudy
Your in a dead end street
And there is no way out of this exploding mind

They're chasing you
Lots of strange creatures
You try to run
But your feet are so heavy
Ways without ending
Darkness and fear
They've got you now
They've got you wake up!

Your sun is dark
Your heaven is cloudy
Your in a dead end street
And there is no way out of this exploding mind
