

Evil Prevail

Dark Funeral

we come through the dampened fog filled night our armour shook in measured beats our weapons are carved with the symbols of the great demon god we are inlaid with gore and grime from uncounted battlefields in the distant land the smoke witnesses our murderous path I summon the force, of geburah let go of your hate, so long been sealed I need your strength, that dwells within you lend me your flame, so the sinners can burn christian souls cry, the sweet sound of torment surrounded by flames, forever they'll burn angels struck down, evil prevail like a cold hatered storm, descended from hell we strike the earth, with our lords furious hate
lend me your flame, so the sinners can burn!!!
