

When I'm Gone

Dark Funeral

I know today will be the day that I die
Haunted by the winds and the gloom is unending
My death shall liberate me as I thirst for the night
I'm here alone while waiting for my grave

When I'm gone
No gods can stop me as I plunge into the shadows
I'm torn apart from this world
When I'm gone
I'll be the whisper in the night, I'll walk beside you
'Til we're united once more

Until the stygian bleakness of time
I'm dressed up in my coffin and the soil is cold
My hands are in necrosis and my eyes they are blind
I'm here alone just waiting for my grave

When I'm gone
No gods can stop me as I dive into the shadows
I'm torn apart from it all
When I'm gone
I'll be a whisper in the night, I'll walk beside you
'Til we unite in the dark

When I'm gone
I will be gone until you join me in the shadows
And we're apart from this world
When I'm gone
We will be whispers in the night, we will be echoes
When we're united at last

"Let my demise and ruination fade
I've waited too long for this moment
And now, I am leaving these realms
My thousand screams were not in vain"

I know today will be the day that I die
Scattered by the breeze and the night is eternal
My death shall liberate me as I thirst for the dark
I'll wait for you each night in our grave

When I'm gone
When I'm gone
When I'm gone
