

Epiclesis

Dark Lunacy

Silk... enchanted veil, that embrace my bleeding memory About your grace when silent weaver make another face.

Eternal pledge in silent tears wile this, scared watcher is...near

Eternal pledge, in silent tears
How many shard, I'll keep?
Prisoner in a shine
covered by the fears Freedom, in vanish ring of time
Melted... from howling sun.

If only you believed and cross my sad, armoring true the gates over de rain if you, if you, believed...believed in me.. now

"Loosing in my pathways...before the shadows fall how many time I called...how many time I'm waiting prisoner in grave without a lid of wood tear in terror, light of light...end to end and never days Loosing in pathways...before shadows fall"

The veil on my surrender your face into my eyes forever turning back in mind and never more my days arise

Eternal pledge, in silent tears
How many shard, I'll keep?
Prisoner in a shine
covered by the fears
Freedom, in vanish ring of time
Melted... from howling sun.

If you, if you, believed Believe and die
For this, armoring true
For gates over de rain
My face over my mask...along my sadness

I'm afraid, I'm disappear
In fragile, human, blowing side
Our sin slowly rise
In the breath of mortal soul

You know my regrets
But waiting your caress Epiclesis that what I see Epiclesis that all I feel.
