Rise the harshness light
On this cold day of march
Waves the yearning, are moving wild
Along the involved dirge of broken life
Broken life... beginning time.

My jailor.

Lying guardian of mi delay
My soul believed in mourning breeze
But scythe is tear all certainties of the day
And love, for life is changed,
In endless deep remorse
Cause I can't tell "I love you" at my side.

All medal has it's dark reverse And you know well, my only friend I need a strong, to be beloved Cause I want drive my suffering

Forgive me, my guiltness preys Help me...pray for my sin My weaver... forgive my soul Forgive me like I am forgiving you

Eternal end... in endless nights My closed eyes, slowly are see.

All medal has it's shine reverse And you know good, my only friend I need a strong, that you watch me Cause I want know the really true.

Last face...last mask fallen Are you evil? Or my awarness? Are you evil or my remorse? Reflect in mirror of my years

Jesus, show me please while I pray you look me wile I'm looking you

Please remember you, the kiss from silent moth. The stroke of mortal pride
I'm damned, I'm damned
Please remember you The kiss from crying moth.
The stroke of mortal pride
Cause I'm evil masquerade.
