

Lovers

Dark Moor

Underneath the starshine where the while light glows lovers in the skyline cupid shoots his bow one promise, true love forever or one life calmed in wealth to choose passion or stealth (chorus)
in my heart, the love is in my heart the dream beneath the sun the lovers will be one the night brings a sweet love caress, a broken feeling possess my heart in the doubt that fills my distress in every soul there is a light, a dream that drives each fate that just love celebrates.
(chorus)
