Dark New Day

I'm taking, taking my chances to get myself over I can't let constant disaster pull me under

I've waited for so long
How can I go wrong?

Coming on like a fiend
taking all that I can Coming on like a fiend
no apologies

This is something I need
it's just who I am
Coming on like a fiend

My will and my resolution are not to be broken I'm moving myself to a new place where truth can be spoken

I've waited for so long
How can I go wrong?

Coming on like a fiend
taking all that I can
Coming on like a fiend
no apologies
This is something I need
it's just who I am
Coming on like a fiend

I've never been so close I've never held it in my hands
I wanna know how it feels to move down from so high I know this is my time
I know it's the right place
My sights are pointing into the sky

I'm coming off just like you
I'm coming on like a fiend
I'm coming off just like you
I'm coming on like a fiend

Coming on like a fiend
taking all that I can
Coming on like a fiend
no apologies
it's just who I am
Coming on like a fiend
