

On a two car driveway.
Under cold black velvet clouds,
I say out loud:
"How much more can we take?
We both know I'm too proud to just lie down."

So I'll wait for that day
When no one suspects anything!

[Chorus:]
We'll break away!
You and I could run
Away from everyone
To where everything's simple!
You and I could find
Another place in time
Where everything's just fine!
It sounds so simple!

When we both push too far.
When there's nothing left but sleep.
Wait for me.
If you don't find me there.
Trust there's no trick up my sleeve!
They won't see.

And I'll wait for that day
When no one suspects anything!

[Chorus:]
We'll find a way!
You and I could run
Away from everyone
To where everything's simple!
You and I could find
Another place in time
Where everything's just fine!
It sounds so simple!

I can't wait!
I can't stay!
I can't stand by and watch our time
Just slip away!
Anymore!

[Chorus:]
You and I could run
Away from everyone
To where everything's simple!
You and I could find
Another place in time
Where everything's just fine!
It sounds so simple!
It sounds so simple!
