

Dance With the Dragon

Dark Sarah

I know why you're here
Don't try to escape my dear
You've been naughty I know
By trying to steal something of my own

I have no idea
Why I have been dragged down here
Don't lie!

Nor what you're talking about
And sir there's no reason to shout!
And sure there's a reason to shout!
I saw the key but didn't steal!
You saw the key and tried to steal!

I see
What do we have here?
What? Nothing

Now I know why you're here
You are a mischief thief
I just can't lie to him
But if you want the key
You need to earn it my dear!
He sees right through me
Oh bugger! He just

This is how we treat our guests
Who are trying to cheat
You need to earn it my dear!
Took the only ticket I had
I guess I have to
So you will be my rag doll tonight, tonight
See where this leads
At the dragon's ball!
At the dragon's ball!

Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
Look at me and the way I ask for forgiveness, kindness and help!
Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
You (I) will die another day, another day

I think we're done now
You think so?
I have to go!
You're not going anywhere!

Why are you making this
(You don't know)
Harder than it is?
(I cry on my own)
You have the key
(In this lonely place)
That you don't even need
(That is why)
You're standing here between me and my life
(I'm standing here between you and your life!)

I'm sorry to say
What now?
Just get off with your tail!

Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
Look at me and the way I ask for forgiveness, kindness and help!
Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
You (I) will die another day, another day

Nannannannanna, leoleolelee!
May I have this dance?
Ah!
Nannannannanna, leoleolelee!
I will show you my best moves
Ah, you best moves
Why don't you?

I just need the key
I'm trying to get out of here
I know that it's a bad deal
And disappointed you must feel
By please help me to escape

Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
Look at me and the way I ask for forgiveness, kindness and help!
Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
Look at me and the way I ask for forgiveness, kindness and help!
Take my all, I surrender, surrender!
We will die another day, another way
Another day, another way
Another day, another way!
