

Deep and Deeper

Dark Sarah

I'm determined to find the key so I open the door
It's a path to the unknown, my mind and something
Much more
Darkness swallows me as I walk further away
From it all
The tunnels keep on going deep and deeper
Into these walls
Into these walls

Deep and deeper I go
Into the mountain doors
The crystals guide my walk
Towards the blue glow
And deeper I go
The earthy wind is raw
I touch the final door
And see the shining hall!

Then enter the massive fall filled with shimmering stones
In the centre of it all I see a crystal clear pond
There's a beast lying on the rocks, I have found him in time Here I'm meeting my inner friend who sleeps in the heart of my mind
In the of my mind

Deep and deeper I go
Into the mountain doors
The crystals guide my walk
Towards the blue glow
And deeper I go
The earthy wind is raw
I touch the final door
And see the shining hall!

The water is clear, he is sleeping, I hear!
I need to get near, I need to get near!
Deep and deeper I go
They drag me down below, I fall

Deep and deeper I go, they drag me down below to the Depths of the pond towards their shiny kingdom
And deeper I go, the water streams are cold
The grip is so strong of the creatures of the pond!
