

Evil Roots

Dark Sarah

Hiss the evil tree, and its roots they squirm like eels
They lead me downwards to the kingdom of evil deeds
Sarah, did I get it right
That you tried to fight against my might?
If this is right I will drag you down towards the night
I surrender to the power of your evil roots

I'm the queen of no good
Serpent tree
Sarah did you know it has taken thee?
It's the wicked leaves choir
Evil roots, you will be entwined to their embrace
She's the queen of no good

You've lost your name
In the fight against the night
Sarah, you must know that the
Darkest water is too wide
The queen of serpents
I have now turned my back to light
I know my chances and I'm willing to start the fight

Serpent tree
Sarah did you know it has taken thee?
It's the wicked leaves choir
Evil roots, you will be entwined to their embrace
She's the queen of no good
Serpent tree
Sarah did you know it has taken thee?
It's the wicked leaves choir
Evil roots, you will be entwined to their embrace
She's the queen of no good

Hiss the evil tree
And its roots they squirm like eels
Sarah gave her soul for the power to be cold
It's sad but true, this is a story that's not new
The fairest mind that was kind has now changed too
Evil roots, merciless
And cruel, they hold on to you
Evil roots, your blood runs in them too

Be ready for part two
Serpent tree
Sarah did you know it has taken thee?
It's the wicked leaves choir
Evil roots, you will be entwined to their embrace
She's the queen of no good
