

Goth Disco

Dark Sarah

It's all so quiet
Like waiting for the right time
Hiding there, in the dark
Behind of every other tree trunk
It's almost full moon
When all the creatures arrive
In a spark, all around the streets
They are rushing into the park

Dance with me, fire!
A strange desire
Ecstasy before termination
Join the weird choir
Chanting gets higher
It's time for the goth disco
Strangely alluring
Looking reassuring
Streets are filled with the creatures dancing
Ready to battle
Weapons with a rattle
It's time for the goth disco

Right there you'll see us
Whispering the weird chant
Get away, go away -
The battle is right about to commence
All nearby villagers
Creatures join to take arms
Battle cries, they will rise
The flaming sky, sparks fly from the bonfires

Dance with me, fire!
A strange desire
Ecstasy before termination
Join the weird choir
Chanting gets higher
It's time for the goth disco
Strangely alluring
Looking reassuring
Streets are filled with the creatures dancing
Ready to battle
Weapons with a rattle
It's time for the goth disco

This night dancing fireflies
Lights of flashlights
Smoke of hickory trees
Whispers in the shadows
And the moon glow
Mist and chilly breeze
This night bathe in blue light
Take the chances
Think of every deed
Frantic and romantic
Raging magic
Feel your powerful roots!
