

Hide and Seek

Dark Sarah

I need your light
I need your guidance
Something that takes away this pain
I was sincere the others were lying
So, where are you god?
I'm going insane

I tried to be myself and you despised me
And when I was not you was still the same
I've got no power to disguise you
When you got me eternally in your game
When you got me eternally in your game

Maybe I was happy when my dreams were guiding me
And maybe I was sad
I think I'm playing hide and seek
But you never find me
Never again

So maybe I was happy when my dreams were guiding me
And maybe I was sad
I think I'm playing hide and seek
But you never find me
You never will
