

Invincible

Dark Sarah

Oh, wicked are the means of mine!
More fortune, fame - is this a game?
A creature from the other side
I'm invincible!

It's just today that adds the zing!
What a life to live, empowering!
No other day would fill the void
I'm invincible!

Justify my ways!
You will prevail!
Reaching out for fame
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!

Justify my ways!
Bet on the ace
Be faster in the race!
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!

This is the way your skills will grow
For your life to fill with witchery
No other way will be the same
You're invincible!

This is my way to make a deal
A hazy stare, malevolent glare -
And all the things you wish are yours
I'm invincible!

Justify my ways!
You will prevail!
Reaching out for fame
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!

Justify my ways!
Bet on the ace
Be faster in the race!
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!

The weakest thing your heart can ponder
A tiny cloud of darkness!
I can give you all
The wonders here beyond and under
Give in to me
Fear no longer, it's the end of chasing
It's like a lucky charm that's given here to you, not yonder!

Justify my ways!
You will prevail
Reaching out for fame
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!

Justify my ways!
Bet on the ace
Be faster in the race!
For the weak, they shall be lost forever!
