

Piece Of My Heart

Dark Sarah

Of fire and fury, a mind that was buried
Behind the veils of time
Has a grip on the calling, has seen the warning
Of ancient thorns, their rise!

In my hollow chest
Lies a Dragon's nest
The fires of destiny
Filled the void of pain recessed

Piece of my heart you stole from me
Glow in the dark
It keeps you here, I have no fear
Let there be light reminding you
And stars in the night
'Cause there's the true memory of us two

You came for my rescue, how could I reject you
We share a piece of heart
One needs the shadows and one seeks the light
Sentenced to be apart

Although I see you go
I've known you for so long
This universe recalls
And the story of us is told by everyone

Piece of my heart you stole from me
Glow in the dark
It keeps you here, I have no fear
Let there be light reminding you
And stars in the night
'Cause there's the true memory of us two

I'm standing on the ruins of the world that used to be Something so beautiful only a heart could see
I thought that it was me who came to make a change
Instead, I ended up descending into this darkness

Piece of my heart you stole from me
Glow in the dark
It keeps you here, I have no fear
Let there be light reminding you
And stars in the night
'Cause there's the true memory of us two
