

Warning Sign

Dark Sarah

I see the rising sun
Destroy the minions
Made a missile gun
From a camellia
Now put a pellet on
This battle can be won
And right before night time
This is a warning sign
This is a warning sign

In the darkness we're torn apart
Fears and lies - a sacrifice
Hear the voice, this is a warning sign
Close your eyes and struggle to stay alive
This is a warning sign

I see that there is
No perfect dominion
Did I miss this run
With a bromeliad?
The demon is unbound
A foul chameleon
The devil holds you down
This is a warning sign
This is a warning sign

In the darkness we're torn apart
Fears and lies - a sacrifice
Hear the voice, this is a warning sign
Close your eyes and struggle to stay alive

We are in this together
Sky is dark for us forever
We're torn, there is no savior, we're forsaken
Like a herd for a wild hunter
A feast to stave off hunger
It shall drain from the pool of fears and lies
This is a warning sign

In the darkness we're torn apart
Fears and lies - a sacrifice
Hear the voice, this is a warning sign
Close your eyes and struggle to stay alive
