

Wheel

Dark Sarah

The wheels are burning
The world is turning
We keep on driving
Despite the warnings

Hold on tight
This frantic ride will lead us right towards
Our fight!

Take a bow for yesterday
That led us to today
Take a bow for yesterday
And dream away!
Take a bow for yesterday
Where we were left to stray
Take a bow for yesterday!

The wind flirts with my hair
We speed as lightning flare
I feel fire in my blood
The stream is burning hot

The wheels are burning
Streaming and howling!

Take a bow for yesterday
That led us to today
Take a bow for yesterday
And dream away!
Take a bow for yesterday
Where we were left to stray
Take a bow for yesterday!

The desert rose is back
The gods will pay back!
I will help you with your task and all that you ask

Take a bow for yesterday
That led us to today
Take a bow for yesterday
And dream away!
Take a bow for yesterday
Where we were left to stray
Take a bow for yesterday!

Take a bow for yesterday
Where we were left to stray
Take a bow for yesterday!
