

Diamond

Dark Suns

Here in the private dark you are the brightest spark nap on my lap and hark there is no transience I feel the permanence you are the real essence shine, little diamond shin you keep me alive
shine, let the diamond shine shine, you're the purest I've ever seen still my heart is in ashes I'm a neophyte of love
shine, little diamond shine
shine, you're the purest one I've ever seen
