

Eyes of the World

Dark Tranquillity

Bring to an end
This avoidance when you close your eyes
What is now
Had a beginning phase that came to pass

Now the eyes of the world are upon you
We all want to know
Now the eyes of the world are upon you
Will we ever see?

I can feel it coming down
As the walls give way and crumble
I can feel it coming down
And I will be watching

You take the bait
It pulls you in and takes you down
And these days
It seems we miss what lies between, the lies between

We can sense the way they'll spin us
They'll spin us round and round till we forget
Till we forget

Lead the fires to the core
To the end now within reach, we must resist
We must resist

Now the eyes of the world are upon you
We all want to know
Now the eyes of the world are upon you
Will we ever see?

I can feel it coming down
As the walls give way and crumble
I can feel it coming down
And I will be watching
Yeah, I will be watching

Now the eyes of the world are upon you
Will we ever see?

I can feel it coming down
As the walls give way and crumble
I can feel it coming down
And I will be watching
Yeah, I will be watching
