

The Pitiless

Dark Tranquillity

Right now!
Right here!
We stand alone!

Against pitiless indifference
We stand alone!

Forever confounded
By the burning margins
To get without context

When into denial
Give in to ignorance
When the world responds in kind
Put an end to the search
And nullify the sense of life

Alone in silence!
Yes I am frightened and so are you
Against pitiless indifference
We stand alone!

Against the ever coming night!

So we step back
To reveal a new perspective
When the allure of our gift is worn off
Not the least be curious
When giants steps away
No going back
Our time is running out

Alone in silence!
Yes I am frightened and so are you
Against pitiless indifference
We stand alone!

Must we resort
To the end of our inquiry
For this to make sense?
This to make sense!

Right here!
Right now!
We stand alone!

Give up or recount them
The days of your life
The truth was of essence
When time was alive

There is no incentive to Give in to the absurd
Reality and comfort
Live forever to oppose

Forever opposed!

Alone in silence!
Yes I am frightened and so are you
Against pitiless indifference
We stand alone!
