

The Great Deceiver

Darkane

Betrayed, broken
Left to an uncertain future
Alone, disemboweled
Cut out the heart that once was whole
Feeling numbness
Because of the massive deceit displayed
Grinding floods
Rivers that cause the hate to bloom

The great deceiver
Hatred causes the mind to blow
Immense anxiety
Wishing it all to end

Abide the time
Along comes a better life
Mind not boggled
Straight forward to a new life waiting
Floods gone
Wellness takes place in the soul
Numbness done
Look ahead for a brighter future to come

The great deceiver
Hatred causes the mind to blow
Immense anxiety
Wishing it all to end

Egocentric manners that crush the soul
Look for ways to forgive, cannot fathom what's been done
Intoxicated flight steps into oblivion to forget
Forgiveness for long gone, a betrayal of togetherness

The great deceiver
Hatred causes the mind to blow
Immense anxiety
Wishing it all to end
