

Conquerors

The Darkness

I don't even want to know your name
after what happened last night
No, I don't wanna know your name

I don't wanna know the name of this game
Don't wanna play this game
After what happened last night

A diamond is only
Some coal that's stuck to it's job
And it's getting so lonely

We were always gonna be the conquerors
We were never gonna sail back home again
The tide is so strong
So keep holding on

Sympathy is dangerous
In the wrong hands
In the wrong light
On a warm summer night

Sympathy is dangerous
In the wrong heart
In the wrong place
At the wrong time

A jewel is only
Some coal that's stuck to it's job
And it's getting so lonely

We were always gonna be the conquerors
We were never gonna sail back home again
The tide is so strong
So keep holding on

A diamond is only
Some coal that's stuck to it's job
And it's getting so lonely

We were always gonna be the conquerors
We were never gonna sail back home again
The tide is so strong
So keep holding on

We were always gonna be the conquerors
We were always gonna conquer
We were always gonna be the conquerors
We were always gonna be the conquerors
The tide is so strong
So keep holding on
