

I Am Santa

The Darkness

Hungry, hungry for Yule
Yearning, winter is cruel (as is autumn)
A picturesque December, all the children are at play
And I don't want no chestnuts or Ferrero Rocher

I can barely wipe the tearflakes from my eyes
All I see is tinsel and despair
I would ride a reindeer across the rooftops through the snow
I cannot waste another day of my life without letting you know

I'm so hungry, I'm hungry for you
I'm so hungry, oh I'm hungry for you
This Christmas time

Ravenous, got a real appetite
I will do anything, anything to know
I would leave the Lapland on a one horse open sleigh
Yeah, oh oh, and I'll see you on Christmas day

I'm so hungry, I'm hungry for you
I'm so hungry, oh hungry for you
This Christmas time

A child wakes from his slumber
And he asks me "who are you?"
I said "son, thank you for the cookies, now I've got a present for you"

I am Santa, the bringer of joy
I am Santa, manufacturer and distributor of toys
I am Santa (Santa)
I'm Santa baby, and you've been a very good boy

Merry Xmas everyone and thanks for the cookies
