

Sticky Situations

The Darkness

I love your smile
But do you have to smile
In my direction?

If you must love me
Keep it discreet
For your own protection

I've got nothing to lose
Under my bed, there's just one pair shoes
Love's always trying to make me start crying
But I refuse

'Cause I love these sticky situations
There's nothing anyone can say
'Cause I love these sticky situations
Woah, you'll never persuade me, baby
To walk away
Walk away, yeah
Try and make me walk away

I'm not looking for something real
I'm just looking for something inspiring
(Keep on searching)

Sweet illusions, weird delusions
Love is so tiring
(When you've seen behind the curtain)

So he's kicked you out in the rain
Let's get you out of those wet things again
Let the love-making start while I'm still your heart
And you're still in my brain

'Cause I love these sticky situations
There's nothing anyone can say
'Cause I love these sticky situations
Woah, you'll never persuade me, baby
To walk away
Walk away, yeah
Try and make me walk away

Heart

Feel that sweet anticipation
You'll never persuade me, baby
To walk away
Walk away, yeah
Baby, walk away
Walk away, ooh
Baby, baby, baby, walk away
