In days, I can't sleep
Don't be injure nothing, but gyal, I can't eat
In a couple days, you left me on seen
You know I'mma call, so I left you a voicemail
Talking 'bout what could have been
You were not the only real one on my team
You see me being happy if it's not with you
I'm lying if I said I wish the best for you

In days, I just think
Running from my mind, [?]
I'm being dramatic, I'm suffocating
I ain't gonna lie, think I'm made for you, girl
These nights, I can't sleep
I'll be up all night just reminiscing
Don't downplay our history
I know you're still listening, yeah

(Nah, no, oh, oh)
You don't wanna let this go
Oh, so why are we fighting? (Yeah)
All the times you were there, took it all for granted
All the moments we shared
Girl, I can't get it back
Yeah, I can't get it back
These feeling is high
Been losing my mind
These feeling ain't right
I know, and you know
We can do this over and over
We can go slow
Bae, I'm not letting go, oh, oh, oh

Can't sleep
Can't eat
You know I'mma call so I left you a voicemail
Can't sleep, just think
Just reminiscing
Don't downplay our history
