

Roads

Darkseed

Disagreements - they have killed the fire
Understanding - forever's flown far away
Life's repressing - all of my desires
Hopelessness - eternally held at bay
Fading to grey

I have seen the path I need to follow
Time to energize
Today lasts only till tomorrow
And a king will rise

Bitterness - so cruel it is out of my league
Loneliness - I fall a thousand fathoms deep
Anger is - dwelling in my restless mind
Here I stand - both deaf and blind
But never I'll surrender!

Chase this rolling stone and see
Has it gathered greener moss?
One bridge lies ahead of me
Will it burn before I walk across?

I feel Like - I'm walking towards the twilight now
Soothe me - in my constant tiredness
Engines push me - rapidly straight
Through the clouds
And erase - my emptiness
Drown my pain for good now
