

I know that you can't forget
I know that you're sleeping less
I know that your clouded thoughts, give you no peace or rest but now you sit and smile and when they ask you how, you say:
there's nothing on my mind
nothing on my mind
there's nothing on my mind
nothing on my mind

Still No Center
There's nothing I can't see
Still No Center
It's not that I can't see
Still No Center
There's nothing I can't see
Still No Center
No Center

Did it for the rush!
Did it for the time of my life and the thrill!
I did it for the rush!

I did it for the rush!
Did it for the time of my life and the thrill!
I did it for the money!

Rush! I did it for the time of my life and the thrill!
I did it for the money! I did it for the rush!

Rush! I did it for the time of my life and the thrill!
I did it for the money!
I did it for the time of my life!
I did it for the rush!

Still No Center
There's nothing I can't see
Still No Center
It's not that I can't see
Still No Center
There's nothing I can't see
Still No Center
No Center

I know that you can't forget
I know that you're sleeping less
I know that your clouded thoughts, give you no peace or rest and now you sit and smile and when they ask you how, you say:
there's nothing on my mind
nothing on my mind
there's nothing on my mind
nothing on my mind
