

Daylight

Darlene Zschech

I will dwell, in Your promise
In the light, of Your truth
You're the Hope, that sustains me
Always safe, here with You

You are here, in the valley
You are here, in the storm
You're the glory of daylight
Breaking through, like the dawn

And You are God Most High
Yet You hear my cry
And You run to my defense

And I will walk unharmed
Angels all around
I will trust and not be moved

In Your love, I'm protected
I will stand, and I will sing
You're the God of angel armies
Heaven's wings, over me

You're the God of angel armies
Heaven's wings, over me

You are God Most High
Yet You hear my cry
And You run to my defense

I will walk unharmed
Angels all around
I will trust and not be moved

You won't let go, You won't give in
You surround me with Your love
Your majesty, it covers me
You surround me with Your love

You won't let go, You won't give in
You surround me with Your love
Your majesty, it covers me
You surround me with Your love

You won't let go, You won't give in
You surround me with Your love
Your majesty, it covers me
You surround me with Your love

You are God Most High
Yet You hear my cry
And You run to my defense

And I will walk unharmed
Angels all around
I will trust and not be moved

You are God Most High
Yet You hear my cry

And I will walk unharmed
Angels all around

You won't let go, You won't give in
Your majesty, it covers me

You won't let go, You won't give in
