

Go

Darlene Zschech

Now we pray, all glory be to God
In Your Name, Your power at work in us
Feel the heavens shaking
Every chain is breaking

Now we pray, let darkness flood with light
In Your Name, Your resurrection life
We display Your glory
Miracles and mercy

We will go
Into all the world we go
Into all the world we go
Into all the world we go

With Your love
Into every life, Your love
So glorious, Your love
Into all the world we go

Now we pray and shout, Your love is here
In Your Name, we throw down every fear
Always in Your presence
Here on earth as heaven

We will go
Into all the world we go
Into all the world we go
Into all the world we go

With Your love
Into every life, Your love
So glorious, Your love
Into all the world we go

Here we come, now Your church
We will go to all the world
Every tribe, every land
As Your feet and loving hands

To the rich, to the poor
Grace is flowing for us all
Nothing missing, nothing broken
He makes all things new

From the ash, from the fire
There is hope there is new life
Tell the world, lift Him high
Nothing else will satisfy

All the joy, all the peace
He has set us free indeed
Nothing missing, nothing broken
He makes all things new

We will go

Into all the world we go

With Your love

We will go

With Your love

Here we come, now Your church
As Your feet and loving hands

To the rich, to the poor
Grace is flowing for us all

From the ash, from the fire
There is hope there is new life

All the joy, all the peace
He has set us free indeed
He makes all things new!

Nothing missing, nothing broken
He makes all things new!

Nothing missing, nothing broken
