

It's over now
The flag is sunk
The world has flattened out
Under the underground
I've always found
A level further down
As I begin to lose hold of
The fiery flower beds above
Mushroom clouds reset the sky
Extralife

In the only game I ever played
I am the ageless one
Another hunted bird
An arcane word
A living machine love
There must be something I've lost sight of Start free extra dimension of Superconductor up in the sky
Extralife
