Love Is the Reason

Darrell Scott

I've seen my baby's life
I've heard them cry
And I've seen myself in their
Selves in daddy's brown eyes
Then I held them to sleep
And they surely surprised
By the measure of faith
It was free then all the broken spirit
Can get up and fly
When love isn't real reason

Oh I held to lovers
To not be alone
And I see them leave
To find love of their own
Even hard to sing like a stone
Drowning between a
Floor and a ceiling
And four great walls kept me down
Oh love is a reason
Oh I've seen the world
Through a blue smoky haze

And I've gone by the fire
Of an al capone place
Burning down nights
And burning down days
My time here on earth
They are stealing
So go on brides monkey
Get back in your cage go

So pack up the babies
Let's load up the van
And take all we have
Between a woman and man
I learned to cave if you hold right
And will see what the darkness revealing
And will paint how the reflection
Shout down the walls on love
Love love love love
Love love love love
Take a look at that
Love is a reason
