

Any of those things

Darren Criss

Last time you were mine,
I was just a kid
I didn't know there were consequences for what I did

There were times it was good
But when it got bad
I didn't have much pride,
I gave you everything I had

Cut to today
I've lived enough to know that love is such a mess, uhh yeah

I have to say that seeing you with someone new
Has got me pretty curious

Is he gonna kiss you in the rain?
Is he gonna cook on Sunday?
Is he gonna love you?
No, he won't do any of these things
Is he gonna take you where he know that it's out of his way?
Is he gonna miss you?
No, he won't do any of these things
No, he won't do any of these things

Remember there was a time when we used to laugh
You said nobody else could make you do that

Sometimes I got it right even when I got it wrong
I would have thought that you meant I was the only one

Cut to today
I've seen you smiling with a diamond on your hand, uhh yeah

I know that face
I can see behind it and you're hiding something
He won't understand

Is he gonna kiss you in the rain?
Is he gonna cook on Sunday?
Is he gonna love you?
No, he won't do any of these things
Is he gonna take you where he
know that it's out of his way?
Is he gonna miss you?
No, he won't do any of these things

Something in me is still with you

Do you feel it too?
So I'm asking, are you in love?
And is this really you?

Is he gonna kiss you?
No
No, he won't
No, he won't
Is he gonna love you?
No
No, he won't do any of those things
Is he gonna miss you?
No he won't do any of those things
Is he gonna take you where he
know that it's out of his way?
Is he gonna miss you?
No he won't do any of those things
No he won't do any of those things
No he won't do any of those things
