

Pheromones

Darren Criss

I used to never get in trouble back in high school
Always payed attention in class
But when I switched my seat to make room for the new girl
All my attention went to that ass(/I)

I started thinking about 'ya in the middle of anatomy
Something was pumping through my veins
I was checking you out instead of books from the library
I didn't need them to explain

It's not your shoes, your clothes, or the ring in your nose
It's not your lipstick shade or your painted toes
No, just your super-cute smile or your XX chromosome
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm just fallin' fo your pheromones

Fast forward I'm at a university
All the studying was no good
Cause I could never focus when the teacher talked in front of me
All I could do was study her tits(/to)

To tell the truth, I don't understand any of those numbers
Just wanted digits on my phone
And I think it's funny when you tell me, "you should do your homework"
I'd love to work on you at home

It's not your shoes, your clothes, or the ring in your nose
It's not your lipstick shade or your painted toes
No, just your super-cute smile or your XX chromosome
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm just fallin' for your pheromones

My education tells me it's a chemical, psychical magnet
My human nature tells me I just want you, and I don't give a sh...

When I'm interviewed at a job and I'm trying to listen
But she is looking cute as hell
So when she asks what attracts me to get in the position
I look at her and I say, uh what?

It's not your shoes, your clothes, or the ring in your nose
It's not your lipstick shade or your painted toes
No, just your super-cute smile or your XX chromosome
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm just fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm just fallin' for your pheromones
No oh oh, I'm fallin' for your pheromones
