

Lost & Found

Darren Kiely

The day I met you
Your eyes were fierce and green
You only spoke truth
Your heart was wild and free

Tell me when your halo got so heavy, darlin', why
You hang your head when you should be the one to hold it high?
Let me hold you close until these moments pass you by
And take my hand tonight

And run with me
Till our lungs give out
It won't always be
Like it is right now
We can leave these streets
We can leave this town
Play hide and seek
Till we're lost and found

I know they told you
That your dreams are nothing more than make-believe
But I know the old you
And the light inside you bursting at the seams, the one the world can see

So, tell me when your halo got so heavy, darlin', why
You hang your head when you should be the one to hold it high?
Trouble, it may come and go, but I'll be by your side
Just take my hand tonight

And run with me
Till our lungs give out
It won't always be
Like it is right now
We can leave these streets
We can leave this town
Play hide and seek
Till we're lost and found

And all I feel is all I know
If we stay here, we'll lose our souls
And all I feel is all I know
Have no fear, you're not alone

And run with me
Till our lungs give out
It won't always be
Like it is right now
We can leave these streets
We can leave this town
Play hide and seek
Till we're lost and found
Till we're lost and found
